

ROMER WAIKĪKĪ

AT THE AMBASSADOR

A HONOLULU
NEIGHBORHOOD HOTEL

Every neighborhood has a spot where people and ideas rub shoulders — places that some choose to call home and others call a destination. Romer Neighborhood Hotels are at the center of it all.

At the gateway to Waikiki, Romer Waikiki at The Ambassador connects guests with the creative and modern spirit of the neighborhoods of Honolulu.

Romer Waikiki is for travelers who long for something different in a beach destination, who want to go out and explore Oahu beyond the surf breaks. It's an easygoing gathering place where Kama'aina (locals) can linger, and a starting point guests to discover Honolulu's beating heart.

From made-in-Hawaii swim-in film series and neighborhood conversations to off-the-beaten path bike excursions and Surf with Aloha group paddles, guests will get more than just a great sustain. They'll experience the real modern Honolulu.
